

Eric Drozdov

Eric is an Undergraduate senior at Babson College expecting to receive a Bachelor of Science in Business Management in May of 2010. He is currently concentrating in Mathematical Finance and Economics. Eric is avidly involved in the Finance Community on campus by participating in such clubs as the Babson Investment Banking Association and the Babson Investment Management Association as well as serving as the Chief Editor of the Babson Financial Report (a weekly financial newsletter he founded in the Fall of 2009). Eric has worked as an Information Assistant at the Stephen D. Cutler Center for Finance and Investments since his sophomore year. He was also a member of the winning team at the Rotman International Trading Competition and earned fifth place honors in the Texas A&M F/X Trading Competition.

Eric's most recent professional experience includes summer analyst positions at Knight Capital Group on the Institutional Equities desk and at BMO Capital Markets with the Commodities Derivatives Products Group. Currently, he is a Babson College Fund Manager in the Basic Materials sector. His interests include learning about financial markets, trading equities and equity derivatives, sports, poker, and travelling.
